

Administrative Professionals Day

(Wednesday, April 27)

Teacher Appreciation Week

(May 2-5, 2022)

Let's bless the office & teaching staff at PCSNW – they definitely deserve a little extra love next week! Take a moment or two to consider these ideas:

Monday Memos

Write a note, text, or email and let the secretary or teacher know how awesome they are!

Tuesday Treats

A little treat can be a picture or craft...or perhaps you bake them something or find something store-bought!

Wednesday Worker

Find a way to work for your teacher or secretary – tidy something, organize something, work a little extra so that the staff can take a little break!

Thursday Thanks

Find a way to thank the staff at PCSNW – they are pretty awesome folks!
