

Thursday Thoughts

This was a skill-testing for all families – did you notice that the Wednesday Words did not come out yesterday? Only one person texted (to my knowledge). Remember, this IS required reading for families. We appreciate your time to keep up-to-date!

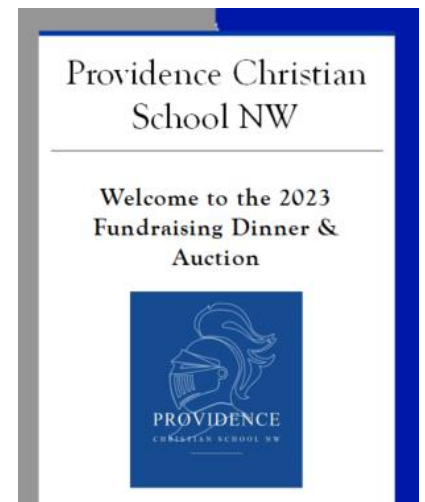

“The Lord is my strength and my defense; He has become my salvation. He is my God, and I will praise Him, my father’s God, and I will exalt Him.”

Exodus 15:2

As a Principal...parent...husband...friend...this verse that was sung after the Israelites crossed the Red Sea resonates with me. For decisions, energy, and the list goes on – I look to the Lord for strength and help when things are hard. What an awesome God...SO worthy of praise!

The Auction is TOMORROW! We are scurrying around putting the final details into place so that it will be a wonderful evening of food, fellowship, and supporting Christian Education at PCSNW!

- If you haven’t RSVPed, do make sure you call the office or stop in today before the end of the school day. We do have a seating limit
- The Auction booklets are printed and the masterlist of silent auction items are available to peruse (time permitting) in the office
- Volunteers helping at the Auction are asked to be at Pioneer Pavilion (2007 Cherry Street, Ferndale) at 4:30 p.m. tomorrow
- The Auction committee sampled the brisket that was smoked by Pastor Kiyle Decker ... my mouth is watering just thinking about it
- We have two missions that we are supporting at the auction as well as donation jars. In case you wanted advance notice.
- Auction items and donations – we accept cash, check (with ID) and credit cards!

Due to some “technical difficulties”, our re-enrollment and enrollment process has been stalled but will be ready on Monday, April 17! All current families and new families will need to fill out our “simplified” enrollment paperwork as it asks for information that our previous forms did not...to aid our office in collecting all the data needed! So! Do look for an email with the link or go to our website on Monday – log in and go to the Enrolled Families Resources tab. Securing your spot requires the registration fee to be paid. It will be on a first-come, first-served basis at the end of the month of April. Thanks for your patience and understanding!

Our 2023-2024 School Calendar is ready for viewing and planning! It will be on the website soon – but a paper copy is available in the office if you need to see it sooner.

Thanks for your patience!

Looking forward to seeing many of you tomorrow at our Auction – thanks for your prayers & support!
